

STUDENT OVERVIEW

Scope: Saturday and/or Sunday, each weekend unless otherwise specified. Possible festival work in June, September, and February. 7:00 am - 3:30 pm on Saturday and 7:00 am - 5:00 pm on Sunday. Flexible shifts within those hours available if needed.

Tasks Performed:

PRODUCTS:

- Create products
- Display products
- Package and brand products
- Take inventory of products and necessary supplies

CUSTOMER INTERACTION:

- Greet customers
- Responsibly assist customers in determining their objectives and recommending and demonstrating products that are designed to help them
- Answer customer questions
- Monitor outside front area to subtly encourage customers inside

SHOP TASKS:

- Assist with opening and closing of the shop
- Some money handling
- Keep storeroom orderly
- Other tasks as needed

Requirements:

- Must be task-oriented and have the ability to focus on what they are doing.
- Must be reliable and fulfill the hours for which they are scheduled.
- Must be of sufficient emotional and mental stability to engage high level magical work on a regular basis.
- This is a small shop, so partners, spouses, and friends may not accompany the student during their work hours.
- The student must provide their own transportation to and from the shop.
- Must arrive showered, clean, and dressed somewhat professionally.
- Must be grounded, non-judgmental, behave professionally, and release all negativity before entering the store.
- No use of profanity around customers.
- Complete non-disclosure and confidentiality for all recipes and techniques taught during training.
- Microwave is provided. Students should provide their own food and drink for the duration of their shift.
- This must be treated as a “job” even though “salary” is not specifically financial.

Benefits:

- Personal, hands-on instruction in the crafts of Brujeria and Hoodoo, both practical and theological, plus some basic magic at no cost to the student.
- Store discounts.
- Access to personal recipes and practices.
- No cost consignment of your products in the store as space allows.